LETTER FROM THE STAFF

Welcome back, Anime Crossroads Family!

A brand-new adventure awaits, and this year is extra special as we celebrate Anime Crossroads' 16th year! Sixteen years of fandom, friendship, and unforgettable memories—thank you for being part of the journey that brought us here. Once a year, we come together to celebrate the things we love most, reconnect with friends old and new, and create memories that last long after the weekend ends.

And the excitement doesn't stop there—next year, we'll be celebrating our 17th year, and we're excited to announce that Anime Crossroads will return February 26–28! Mark your calendars now—this is one reunion you won't want to miss.

As always, welcome to the family if this is your first year, and welcome back to all of our returning attendees. Thank you to our vendors, artists, industry partners, guests, staff, and of course our amazing attendees for making Anime Crossroads what it is today.

With much love,

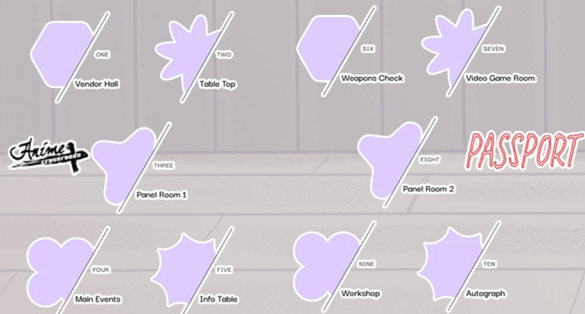

The Staff of Anime Crossroads

Nicolas is also a longtime commercial voice for brands like Taco Bell, Pepsi, NASCAR, Hot Wheels, and Mountain Dew, and is a theater graduate of the University of New Orleans.

PERFORMANCE GUEST: ORIANA PERÓN

Oriana Perón is a cosplaying, costume, and fashion designing, drag queen. She has been cosplaying since 2006 when this nerdy hobby turned into a passionate career. Oriana has studied theatre and costume design at Indiana University and continues her studies with a focus on fashion design, metalsmithing, and jewelry. Recently, Oriana has produced and performed her Drag Race and Drag Show events at Ohayocon, Anime Magic, AnimeNext, C2E2, Maturicon, and ACEN. Oriana currently lives in Bloomington, Indiana and is a producer and host for her shows, "World of Fantasy" and "World of Gayming" at The Back Door. Her favorite thing is dressing up like cartoon moms and sending memes to all her friends. Oriana looks forward to conventions coming back and seeing all her friends and fans again!

You can find Oriana online at:
www.orianaperon.com
www.instagram.com/orianaperon

PERFORMANCE GUESTS: STRANGE MUSIC SQUAD

The Strange Music Squad is an Indianapolis-based DJ team consisting of SHI-BASCREAM, KHTO RIDER, and TETSUO THE ROBOT, that has played clubs, conventions, and events the world over, from Indy to LA to Tokyo.

The Strange Music Squad delights in delivering niche genres to new ears. Wielding omni-genre weapons from every element of electronic dance music and equipping them with anime/gamer material, their limit break makes the entire room bounce.

Specializing in cosplay dance party events with an EDM edge, the group brings their love of geek and con culture to da club and will lsekai your a$$ to another world.

Come vibe out with the squad!

PERFORMANCE GUEST: DANCERS AND DEBAUCHERY

Returning this year are the dancers of Dancers and Debauchery to bring you a one of a kind Burlesque Variety Show. Combining dance, lyra, silks, and more, these unique performers are sure to bring their all to the stage as fly for all who attend!

COSPLAY GUEST: KYDKINDRED

Kydkindred started their cosplay career in 2009 when they discovered their High Schools anime club, and has continued down the rabbit hole ever since. Kyd enjoys all things whimsigoth, fantasy, and fun. They specialize in a "don't panic, we will make it work" mentality. They love styling wigs and dissecting designs. Kyd loves to collect books (and attempt to read them), playing video games and DnD, and running around at different Ren Faires. They started competing in 2013, and their most recent win was Best In Show at Colossal Prime 2025 as Hu Tao. They are excited to gush about special interests, craftsmanship, and special little details about everyone's costume!

COSPLAY GUEST: VISUALSONGSTRESS

Visualsongstress started cosplaying way back in 2008, and has won an array of awards over the years for both Craftsmanship and Performance. Vis prides herself on helping those around her, solving crafting problems with creative solutions, and creating a welcoming environment for all cosplayers. The costumes she is currently most proud of are Cloud Strife (Final Fantasy VII: Advent Children), Wei Wuxian (Mo Dao Zu Shi), and Vi (Arcane).

When not cosplaying (or sometimes in cosplay), she can be found behind the camera taking photos for other cosplayers.

COSPLAY GUESTS: SEWING ARTIST

Sewing Artist is a professional ballet costume maker by day and cosplayer by night. She started in cosplay over 15 years ago as a fun hobby with friends and over the last decade has made her living working in regional and academic theatre shops working as a costume director, patternmaker, stitcher, and crafts artisan. Although she has developed many skills from making costumes over the years she most enjoys pattern making, embroidery/embellishments, and most recently, leather work. When not sewing, she spends much of her time playing TTRPGs with friends and painting miniatures.

GUEST PANELS

Draping a Pattern for Cosplay - Demo

Friday 3pm - Panel Room 1

Do you want to learn how to make patterns for your cosplay without the math? Have a dress form or someone to help you? Just curious about the process? This is the panel for you!

PANELS

A Little Less Duct Tape; working with unconventional cosplay materials

Are you on a budget? Are you interested in environmentally-friendly cosplay hacks? Do you like the challenge of making something in a new way? Then this panel is for you. I'll go over some of the unconventional materials that I've used in cosplay-- even the pistachio shells that won me a cosplay contest award-- and I encourage you to bring your cosplay wips to work on together. I'll bring some of my go-to trash supplies and we'll see if we can't tackle some of your cosplay questions together.

Abridging 101, Voice Acting, Writing, and More!

Come hang out and learn what goes into making an Abridged series, from writing, directing, recording space, and voice over with the crew of PhatDogStudios! Best known for their Solo Leveling, Shield Hero, Log Horizon and Reincarnated as a Slime parodies.

Anime Cons Across America: Stories of the Con Experience Across the United States

Many types of anime conventions are held all across the United States, and almost every major city in the U.S. plays host to at least one fan convention. Listen to a longtime convention attendee and staffer who has attended and traveled to cons around the U.S. for 10+ years, and who has staffed anime conventions for 9 years, discuss how anime cons are equally similar and different across America.

Roll for Chaos : DnD Improv Show 18+

Get ready to toss the rulebooks aside and embrace the madness! Join our brave (and possibly doomed) panel of adventurers for an 2 hour-long live D&D session where YOU—the audience—control the chaos! Wild magic, cursed dice, and unpredictable audience decisions will shape the fate of the party. The audience controls the twists. The party controls the panic. No D&D knowledge required—just a sense of humor and thirst for mayhem!

Science of Anime: Time-Travel of Steins;Gate

What if you could send a message to the past—and change everything? Steins;Gate takes one of science fiction's most fascinating questions and mixes it with real scientific theories, from black holes to tachyons to wormholes. But how much of this science holds up, and how much is pure anime magic? (Warning: this panel will contain Steins;Gate spoilers)

Sewing for Beginners: How To Basics

Starting as a beginner sewist can be scary, but we're here to help! In this panel, we'll learn how to pick fabrics, what type of threads to use, and when to use hand sewing and machine sewing. We'll also learn how to wash fabrics, basic sewing machine parts, and the do and do not's of finding patterns online.

Voice Acting: Where Do I Start?!

Want to try voice acting, but unsure where to start? We'll go over equipment, home studios, classes, where to find auditions, demo reels/resumes, and so much more!

What in the Omegaverse!?!?! 18+

Come discover the Omegaverse. Curious of what others may think when defining "The Alpha"? Mad when your favorite character is always "The Omega". We will be discussing and ranking random characters into the Omegaverse. Come tell us all about your head cannon.

WTF are they wearing!??

Ever seen an anime and wondered, "what is that outfit?" And "how am i supposed to make this cosplay?" Well, fret not! I, a historical costume fanatic, am here to help! I will go over some popular anime clothing, the names, some history, and how to get it for your cosplay.

CODE OF CONDUCT

General

Anime Crossroads expects a level of acceptable and reasonable behavior from all attendees. Please be considerate to all Attendees, Guests, and Anime Crossroads Staff, as well as for the individuals who are attending other events at the hotel. Anime Crossroads attendees are expected to obey the rules set by Anime Crossroads. Any violation may result in suspension of their pass(es) and even a permanent ban from the Anime Crossroads Convention and its sister conventions. Any attendee who violates a state or federal law at Anime Crossroads will be reported to local authorities. Anime Crossroads has the right to revise the Code of Conduct at any time and for any reason without notice.

Consent to Photography

Any photographs or videos of attendees taken by Anime Crossroads staff in an official capacity may be used or published by Anime Crossroads without further consent of the attendees being recorded. Photography and recording of any kind are strictly prohibited during concert events, with the exception of official Anime Crossroads Press Staff and pre-approved members of the general press.

Behavior

Anime Crossroads strives to provide a safe and fun environment for all those who attend the convention. Behavior such as, but not limited to, skanking, moshing and/or standing on chairs will not be tolerated at any time for any reason during any convention events. Individuals who engage in such behavior will be immediately ejected from the event. A verbal warning will be issued for a first time violation and any further misconduct will result in confiscation of their pass for the remainder of the convention. Smoking is only permitted in pre-designated areas at the convention space. Please be prepared to show your badge any time you enter a convention space or event – it identifies you as a fully paid attendee of the convention. Please consider how your words and actions reflect on the convention and how they impact those around you, as most of the convention activities and areas are directed at general audiences. Keep in mind that other individuals' opinions may differ from your own. Do not engage in heated discussions with an individual(s). Use your common sense in public areas. If you are unsure whether something is appropriate to do in public, please consult one of the Anime Crossroads Security staff or Directors. If you notice others are uncomfortable with your costume or your activities, please stop immediately. We take pride in our appearance and we want you to do so as well while still having fun. To this effect, Anime Crossroads Directors have final say on all matters.

Costumes and Clothing

Any indecent exposure (public exposure of genitalia, buttocks or nipples) is not permitted. When choosing and/or creating your costume, please keep in mind the constraints of local laws and customs concerning public decency. Just because an anime character wears only a face mask, you may not do so. Sturdy and fitted costumes are required; you should not be falling out of your costume, and it should not be falling apart around you. Also, remember to have proper support such as bras and/or athletic cups, especially if you plan to be physically active, i.e., dancing or running when approved. If you have a bulky or large costume, please be aware of your surroundings. Try not to hit other attendees, block walkways or access, or cause a disruption. You are responsible for your own costume and should respect those around you. For more specifics on costume and cosplay requirement, please see our Cosplay and Weapons Policies.

CODE OF CONDUCT

Buying, Selling, and Solicitation

Anime Crossroads has a few main areas where merchandise is sold – the Dealers’ Room and Artists’ Alley. Anyone who receives payment for goods in the convention space must comply with all the convention’s rules regarding this. For any sale of merchandise, the exhibitor rules apply. Other restrictions may also apply. Anime Crossroads takes its obligations in this area very seriously. Any solicitation at the convention, whether verbal or use of signage for monetary payment or exchange of services that does not comply with these restrictions, is prohibited. Some examples of prohibited solicitation or sale are musicians requesting tips, setting up artwork for sale in the common areas, and passing out signs or cards to solicit a business in areas other than the aforementioned commerce areas. Violation of these rules may result in the offender forfeiting their pass, returning all payments, and facing expulsion from the convention area. Please also note that certain solicitations are ILLEGAL and will result in immediate membership pass forfeiture and possible referral to the proper law enforcement authorities. Any solicitation or selling outside of the convention center requires a street vendor license from the city. Should you be caught engaging in such activities, you may be ticketed and fined, as well as possibly sent to jail. Offering favors of a sexual nature for sale, such as kisses, hugs, dates, gropes, spankings, etc., are strictly prohibited as they may be viewed as forms of prostitution. Attempts to circumvent any of these rules such as throwing money and merchandise on the ground and other such tactics are also prohibited.

Liability

Anime Crossroads, its personnel, and its affiliates are not responsible for any damage, theft, injury, or loss. Attendees of the convention are responsible for their own actions and belongings as well as for any resulting repercussions. Convention staff are on hand to assist in any situation. However, any civil or medical emergencies that may occur must be handled directly by the appropriate authorities.

Final Word

Anime Crossroads Directors reserve the right to remove any attendee from the Convention grounds for any reason deemed unsafe or harmful to others or for repeated failure to follow the rules.

For Assistance

If you have any questions, comments, or concerns regarding our Code of Conduct, please contact us by sending an email to admin@animecrossroads.com prior to the convention. You may also visit the Convention Operations room during the convention. Please consult your convention floor map in the Program Guide to find out the location of Convention Operations.

COSPLAY AND WEAPON POLICY

A costume, prop, or weapon may be deemed unacceptable if it:

- Fails to comply with local laws.
 - Leaves your feet bare.
 - Has vulgar remarks or hate speech in any language.
 - Has dangerous protrusions such as spikes or sharp edges.
 - Is a costume that extends more than six inches from your body in any direction? (For example, if your costume has a tail, you may hold it next to your body, but not let it trail out behind you.)
 - Is a prop that is longer than your height? If you are less than four feet tall, your props may be up to four feet long. Props that are too long may be carried in pieces and reassembled for pictures.
 - Impedes the view of others during seated events.
 - Has a tightly-strung bowstring.
 - Has a laser pointer or similar capability.
 - Has parts made of live steel. Live steel is defined as an object crafted from metal that has a point or blade-like edge, whether blunt or sharp. Live steel purchased from vendors must stay boxed while in convention space.
 - Is a gun-like prop without an orange tip. Gun-like props also must have their firing mechanisms disabled and have nothing loaded.
 - Is a real firearm.
 - Is being used or handled unsafely.
- Is determined by convention staff to be unsafe.

Cosplay Interaction Policy

- Do not touch another person, or their costume, without permission. Uninvited glomping, hugging, grabbing or roughhousing will not be tolerated. Repeat violators will be ejected from the convention.
- Be respectful of others. No harassment, catcalling, verbal abuse, or stalking will be tolerated.
- Do not block hallways or public areas while taking photos. If you are taking a photo, please move to one side of the hallway or go outside.

Props & Accessories Policy

Props carried in public areas must be no more than your height. This is for the safety of all attendees, as well as to prevent damage to personal property. If your prop is larger than your height, please do not bring it into public areas. If you are using a large prop for a special event, such as the Masquerade or for purposes of demonstration in a panel, you may have the prop approved for temporary use in those areas only. The prop must be returned to your hotel room or car immediately when the event is over.

Use caution when carrying or displaying large props. If you are seen wielding a large prop in a reckless or dangerous manner, your prop may be confiscated. If ACross staff feels that your prop poses a risk to others, you will be asked to remove the item from public areas, or it may be confiscated.

COSPLAY AND WEAPON POLICY

Prohibited Materials

Flammable materials such as candles, fireworks, sparklers, liquid fuels, or other fire hazards are strictly prohibited. Small personal smoking paraphernalia (cigarettes, lighter, etc.) may be carried, but may NOT be used in indoor public convention areas as per local law. Your costume should not shed. Please avoid loose materials such as sand, glitter, confetti, flower petals or other items that are designed to fall, scatter or otherwise separate from your costume. We want to be welcomed back for next year!

Signs Policy

Signs are not permitted unless they are an intrinsic part of your character's costume. Personal message signs, fandom signs (such as "Will Glomp for Pocky," etc.) and similar signs are prohibited. Clothing that displays messages deemed to be inappropriate or offensive to others (including, but not limited to, explicit language and sexually suggestive or racially offensive material) will not be permitted. ACross staff reserves the right to ask attendees to change or cover offensive clothing. Failure to comply will result in your badge being confiscated.

Handling of Unacceptable Costumes and Props

If you are found with an unacceptable prop, we will ask you to take it to your room. If you are unable or unwilling, or this is a repeat problem, we may ask to confiscate the problem prop. Confiscated props may be claimed from 2 to 6 on Sunday by visiting Convention Operations, after which they will be disposed. You must bring a government-issued photo ID to claim your prop.

Weapons Policy

ALL WEAPONS must be inspected and approved by the safety team prior to being carried or displayed in public areas. If you are found to be in violation of this policy, your weapon will be confiscated and you may be ejected from the convention. No projectile weapons of any kind, active or disabled, are permitted without passing weapons check. This includes, but is not limited to:

- | | | | | |
|------------------|------------------|--------------|-------------|-----------|
| • real firearms | • paintball guns | • water guns | • nerf guns | • bows or |
| • pellet/BB guns | • air guns | • cap guns | • dart guns | crossbows |

(The ONLY exception to this policy is if the person carrying the weapon is a member of law enforcement. Please present credentials to the safety team upon arrival.)

Artificial and replica guns will be permitted, pending inspection by the safety team, if they meet the following criteria: They cannot now, and have never been able to, fire a projectile. This included nerf guns. They have a non-removable orange tip. No live steel (edged metal weapons) will be permitted. Replica weapons must be made of a non-metal, non-sharp material, must be no more than 60 inches in length, and must be approved by the safety team. Metal is permitted on a costume garment, provided it does not present a safety hazard, as determined by ACross staff. Commercial weapon replicas purchased in the dealer room must remain peace-bonded at all times and must be taken directly to your hotel room or car after purchase. They may not be carried around the convention. Noncompliant weapons in convention areas will be confiscated by the safety team

The Director of Anime Crossroads Safety Team can render final say on the acceptability of any costume or prop.
